Crater Community Hospice is pleased to announce that its Board of Directors has selected Mr. Zach Holt as our new Chief Executive Officer, effective August 3, 2020. Special thanks to Linda Maitland, Office Manager and Acting CEO for leading us through the interim.

Mr. Holt is highly qualified to hold the position of Chief Executive Officer. He has worked in the hospice industry for many years and has strong leadership skills. His experience includes both operations as well as marketing and he is well known in the Central Virginia market. He has an extensive background in working with multidisciplinary teams to provide clinical excellence, which includes a commitment to serving our nations veterans.

Zach completed his BS in Business Management and his Master's in Business Administration from East Carolina University. He is originally from Fargo, North Dakota and lived in North Carolina for 17 years where his career in hospice began. Zach and his wife, Amy, sons, Wyatt and Nash, moved to Virginia in 2015 and currently reside in Moseley. In his spare time, he enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family.

The Board of Directors interviewed several excellent CEO candidates; after very thoughtful and careful consideration, they felt that Mr. Holt best represents the mission of Crater Community Hospice and is uniquely qualified to lead our organization.
